

BYLAWS OF THE COLORADO GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Approved: June 17, 2023

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of this organization is THE COLORADO GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INCORPORATED, (Sic) hereinafter referred to as the “Society”, a nonprofit organization.

ARTICLE II

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this Society are:

1. To promote an interest in genealogy by encouraging, educating, and instructing members and the public in the art and practice of genealogical research;
2. To maintain and evaluate genealogical standards by stressing the knowledgeable use of sources and the importance of complete and accurately recorded research;
3. To locate, preserve and index public and private genealogical records and to make such records, or the information in them, available to members and the general public;
4. To assist and support the genealogical community in Colorado, including researchers, fellow societies, libraries and archives;
5. To publish genealogical and historical information in a quarterly journal known as The Colorado Genealogist, CGS Newsletter and in other appropriate publications.
6. When deemed appropriate and necessary by the membership, Special Interest Groups (SIG) of the Society may be created to further these objectives.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP AND DUES

Section A. Membership. Any applicant interested in furthering the objectives of this Society shall be eligible for membership upon submission of a completed application form and payment of dues. Any member whose dues are current shall be considered a “member in good standing.” Changes in classes of membership and the amount of dues shall be proposed by the Board of Directors and approved by the general membership at the Annual Meeting.

Section B. Honorary Life Membership. Honorary Life Membership may be conferred upon any Society member who has given exceptional service to the Society as determined by the Board of Directors and as announced in a Society publication.

Section C. Honorary Membership. Honorary Membership of one year (1) may be conferred upon any individual for service to the Society as determined by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV

MEMBERSHIP AND FISCAL YEARS

Section A. The Membership Year shall be as defined in the Policy and Procedures.

Section B. The Fiscal Year shall be from 1 July through 30 June.

ARTICLE V

MEETINGS

Section A. Membership Meetings. General Membership Meetings of the Society shall be scheduled by the Board of Directors and shall be open to anyone interested in the objectives of the Society.

Section B. Special Membership Meetings. Special meetings may be called by the President, by a majority of the Board of Directors, or by a written request to the Board of at least ten Society members. The notice for such a meeting shall allow sufficient time to provide due notice to the membership as to time, place, and subject. No business other than the stated subject shall be conducted at a special meeting.

Section C. Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting shall be the General Membership Meeting in June. During the Annual Meeting, the following business shall be conducted:

1. Posting of the minutes of the last Annual Meeting.
2. Posting of the Financial Report.
3. Adoption of the Annual Budget.
4. Adoption of any proposed amendments to these Bylaws.
5. Election and installation of officers and nominating committee members.
6. Other business as deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors.

Section D. Quorum. A quorum shall be a majority of those members in good standing who are present.

ARTICLE VI

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section A. Composition

1. The officers of the Society shall be the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and the most recent Past President willing to serve. These officers serve as the Executive Committee (Article VII). In addition, there may be Chairpersons of Standing Committees appointed by the President and approved by the Executive Committee (See Art. VII, Sec. A). The President may appoint, with approval from the Executive Committee, at-large members of the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee, Chairpersons of the Standing Committees, and at-large members shall constitute the Board of Directors.
2. The Board of Directors shall be no fewer than five and no more than 13 people.
3. A board member need not be a resident of the State of Colorado. No person shall be elected or appointed, or shall continue to serve on the Board of Directors, unless that person is a member of the Colorado Genealogical Society in good standing.

Section B. Responsibilities. The Board of Directors shall be responsible for the effective management and the day-to-day operation of the Society. The Board of Directors shall:

1. Transact the official business of the Society.
2. Establish and approve an annual budget for adoption at the Annual Meeting.
3. Establish, and direct temporary committees as deemed necessary. Chairpersons of such committees shall be appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Directors.
4. Approve special programs, seminars, and similar projects.
5. Control and manage Society funds and fund-raising activities.
6. Review appointments made by the President and the Vice President and confirm them as appropriate.
7. Authorize disbursements not already provided for in the budget.
8. Establish and maintain a Procedure Manual which shall contain standing rules, policies and procedures needed for the efficient operation of the Society. These procedures shall include a specific position description for each elected and appointed official and each committee. These procedures, policies and rules may, at any time, be amended by the Board of Directors.

Section C. Succession. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors, with the exception of the President, may be filled by presidential appointment, subject to confirmation by a majority of the Board of Directors. In the absence, incapacity or resignation of the President, the Vice President shall assume the presidency until the next regularly scheduled election in June when a new President shall be elected to serve out the remainder of the original two-year term of office.

Section D. Meetings and Voting.

1. The President shall call at least nine regular meetings of the Board of Directors each year.
2. The Board of Directors shall permit in-person, electronic, or hybrid meetings as long as all participants may hear each other during the meeting. All board members, whether attending in person or remotely, are deemed to be present at the meeting.
3. Board members must be present at a meeting to vote on matters presented for action. Proxy voting is not permitted.
4. Each Board member present and voting at a meeting shall have one vote on each matter presented for action.
5. A quorum shall be a majority of the Board of Directors of the Society including at least three members of the Executive Committee.

6. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be open to visitors. Visitors who are members of the Society shall have the privilege of voice but not vote.

Section E. Special Meetings. The President shall call a special meeting of the Board of Directors upon request of any two members of the Executive Committee.

Section F: Action Without a Meeting. Voting on time critical issues may be conducted by mail, email, or other electronic means if no member of the Board of Directors objects. If a member of the Board of Directors does object, the President shall call a meeting.

1. Notice of the Action Without a Meeting shall include action to be taken and the time by which a director must respond.
2. The action will be approved if, at the end of the time stated in the notice, an affirmative vote is received from a majority of the Directors and no Director has objected to the action being taken without a meeting. Failure to respond by the time stated will have the same effect as abstaining and failing to object.
3. Actions shall be reported and made part of the minutes of the next meeting of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section A. The Executive Committee shall consist of the four elected officers of the Society, and the most recent Past President.

Section B. The Executive Committee shall have general supervision of the Society between Board Meetings and make decisions necessary between said meetings. The Executive Committee shall be subject to the orders of the Society and none of its acts shall conflict with action taken by the Society.

Section C. The Executive Committee has the authority to remove and replace persons in appointed positions.

ARTICLE VIII

STANDING COMMITTEES

Section A. Standing Committees may be established by a majority vote of the members at a General Membership Meeting or a Special Membership Meeting.

Section B. Chairpersons of Standing Committees shall be members of the Board of Directors of the Society.

ARTICLE IX

NOMINATIONS, TERMS AND ELECTIONS

Section A. Nominations.

1. The Nominating Committee shall consist of a Chairman and two other members to be elected at the Annual Meeting to serve one year.
2. The Nominating Committee shall prepare a slate of candidates - one for each position becoming vacant as outlined in Article VI, Sec. A and three (3) members of the Nominating Committee for the next year for presentation to the Board of Directors at its April meeting. The committee may also be requested to submit candidates for vacated appointed positions. Written consent to serve in the position for which nominated shall be obtained from each nominee.
3. The approved slate of candidates shall be announced in the May newsletter and/or electronic communication and at the May General Membership Meeting.
4. Nominations may be made from the floor at the Annual meeting by any member, provided that any person so nominated has agreed in writing to serve in the position for which nominated.

Section B. Terms of office shall be effective July 1. The term for elected officers shall be two years. No officer may serve more than two consecutive terms in any one office.

Section C. The appointed Directors shall assume their positions July 1. Their term of office shall be one year and they may be reappointed for additional consecutive terms.

Section D. Election of the President, Secretary and three (3) members of the Nominating Committee shall be at the Annual Meeting in even-numbered years.

Section E. Election of the Vice President, Treasurer and three (3) members of the Nominating Committee shall be at the Annual Meeting in odd-numbered years.

Section F. Voting shall be by a show of hands or voice provided that there is only one candidate for each office. Only those members in good standing are eligible to vote. If more than one candidate is running for any office, the voting shall be by written ballot of those members in good standing in attendance at the Annual Meeting. A majority vote elects.

ARTICLE X

RESPONSIBILITIES OF ELECTED AND APPOINTED OFFICIALS

Section A. In addition to the basic responsibilities assigned to each position in the following sections, each official shall be responsible for such other duties and tasks as may be required by the official position description prepared and maintained in the Procedure Manual.

Section B. The President shall:

1. Preside at all meetings of the membership and of the Board of Directors.
2. Sign, with the Secretary, all legal documents on behalf of the Society.
3. Appoint a Parliamentarian to advise the President and the Board of Directors on matters of order and procedure.
4. Upon expiration of the term of office, serve on the Board of Directors as Past President.
5. Select and appoint the Chairpersons of Standing Committees as approved by the Executive Committee (See Art. VII, Sec. A).
6. Select and appoint the Chairman and members of the following committees:
 - a. Auditing. The committee shall consist of from one to three individuals and is responsible for conducting an audit of the financial records after the close of each fiscal year. It shall submit a written report of audit to the President for reading at the next General Membership Meeting.

b. Long-Range Planning. The committee shall consist of a Chairman and five members selected from among former Society Board members. Its function shall be to offer recommendations to the Board of Directors which would warrant consideration toward furthering the objectives of the Society. This committee shall be appointed when deemed necessary by the Board of Directors.

7. Serve as ex-officio member of all committees except the Nominating Committee.

Section C. The Vice President shall:

1. Assume the Presidency in the absence or resignation of the President or at the request of the President.
2. Assist the President in the administration of the Society.
3. Review yearly and update, as needed, the procedure manual.

Section D. The Secretary shall:

1. Assume the Presidency in the absence, incapacity or resignation of the President and Vice President or at the request of the President.
2. Record and transcribe the minutes of the meetings of the membership and the Board of Directors.
3. Sign, with the President, all legal documents on behalf of the Society.
4. Be responsible for collecting and preserving all material from Board and Membership Meetings of historical and record value pertaining to the Society.
5. Be responsible for receiving, processing and distributing to appropriate officials all mail received by the Society at its official address. Assignment can be made to another member of the Board if that person is willing to assume the duty.
6. Be responsible for responding to correspondence at the request of the President.

Section E. Treasurer shall:

1. Assume the presidency in the absence, incapacity or resignation of all of the following: the President, Vice President and Secretary.
2. Be responsible for all financial concerns of the Society.
 - a. Be custodian of all Society funds and provide, at Society expense, if so requested by the Board of Directors, a performance bond in the amount required by the Board.
 - b. Maintain appropriate books and use generally accepted accounting practices.

- c. Sign checks for authorized disbursements on behalf of the Society.
- d. Prepare financial reports and statements for presentation to the Board of Directors and to the membership at General Membership Meetings.
- e. Make financial records available to the Auditing Committee
- f. Keep an accurate and up-to-date inventory of all assets of the Society including, but not limited to, all equipment, books, computer programs, office supplies or materials purchased with Society funds for use in conducting the business of the Society.

3. Select and appoint, when necessary, the Chairman and members for each of the following committees and serve on each in an ex-officio capacity:

- a. Financial Planning. Responsible for conducting necessary planning to insure that adequate funds are available for operation of the Society; advising the Board of Directors concerning any need for fund-raising programs, dues adjustments, investing of Society funds and recommending expenditure of any excess funds in the Society accounts.
- b. Budget. Responsible for preparing the Society annual budget and submitting it to the Board of Directors for approval at the April Board Meeting. The proposed budget shall be announced at the regular May General Membership Meeting and published in the May newsletter and/or electronic communication.

Section F. The Past President shall:

- 1. Serve as advisor to the President and the Board of Directors.
- 2. Provide guidance to the Nominating Committee.
- 3. Serve on the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE XI

SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

Section A. When a group of 15 or more Society members identifies a need related to the objectives of the Society, a Special Interest Group (SIG) may be established to further those goals.

Section B. Each proposed SIG must notify the President of the Society in writing of its intention to form and the purpose of the SIG.

Section C. Bylaws for each SIG must be submitted to the Board of Directors of the Society which must approve the creation of the SIG. The members of the Board of Directors of any SIG must be members of the Society. Any part of any SIG bylaws in conflict with these bylaws shall be considered null and void. Any changes to any SIG bylaws must be presented to the Society Board for approval before any changes may take effect.

Section D. Only SIGs which are approved by the Society Board for SIG status shall be eligible to use the tax exempt status of the Society. All income must be reported to the Society Treasurer and each SIG shall be responsible for a detailed accounting of expenses and income and for the payment to the Society Treasurer of any state or local taxes as required by the nonprofit status of the Society resulting from the SIG activities.

Section E. No activity which jeopardizes the nonprofit status of the Society shall be allowed by any SIG.

Section F. Membership in any SIG does not constitute membership in the Society.

Section G. Minutes of the meetings of any SIG shall be sent to the Society President at the time they are distributed to the SIG Board.

Section H. Minutes of the meeting of the Society Board shall be sent to the president and liaison of each SIG at the time they are distributed to the Society Board.

Section I. Each SIG shall keep an accurate and up-to-date inventory of all assets, including, but not limited to, all equipment, books, computer programs, office supplies or materials purchased with SIG funds for use in conducting the business of the SIG. A copy of this inventory shall be sent to the Society Treasurer at least 30 days prior to the end of the fiscal year.

Section J. In the event any SIG decides to dissolve, its assets shall be returned to the Society along with all membership rosters, financial records and other records of its operation.

ARTICLE XII

AFFILIATES

Section A. When five or more individuals, who are not within a geographical area served by an existing genealogical society, desire to create a group whose purposes are related to the objectives of the Society, an affiliate may be established, to further the achievement of these goals. The name of this affiliate shall be “Colorado Genealogical Society/site” and may be abbreviated as “CGS/site”.

Section B. Each proposed affiliate must notify the President of the Society, in writing, of its desire to organize, and must state its purposes and objectives. All affiliates are subject to the approval of the Society’s Board of Directors.

Section C. Membership in the affiliate will require membership into the Society, to which all benefits, responsibilities, policies, procedures and bylaws will apply. Affiliate members are encouraged to attend at least one General Membership Meeting and the Annual Meeting of the Society, per membership year.

Section D. The affiliate’s financial structure may be self-determined, as approved by the Society’s Board of Directors. A financial report and the list of assets will be submitted to the Society Treasurer at least thirty days prior to the end of the fiscal year. Any exercise of sales tax exemption must be preapproved by the Society’s Board of Directors.

Section E. An affiliate shall not engage in any activity which jeopardizes the nonprofit status of the Society.

Section F. Regularly scheduled affiliate meetings shall occur at least four times per membership year. Scheduled meeting and event dates must be forwarded to the CGS Newsletter Editor for inclusion into the Society newsletters.

Section G. The affiliate shall designate a Chairperson, whose duties will be to schedule meetings and events, and to submit an Annual Report to the Society Secretary at least thirty days prior to the end of the fiscal year. This Chairperson is invited, but is not required, to attend the Board Meetings of the Society as a guest.

Section H. The affiliate will work locally to promote, encourage, educate and instruct the community in the art and science of genealogy. The affiliate is encouraged to locate and preserve local records, and to extract and publish local records in the Society Quarterly.

Section I. The Society President will appoint a Society affiliate liaison.

Section J. In the event any affiliate decides to dissolve, its assets shall be donated to the local library or historical society; membership rosters, financial records and records of operation will be given over to the Society. The Society Board of Directors reserves the right, by two-thirds vote, to dissolve an affiliation.

ARTICLE XIII

PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

Section A. The rules contained in Roberts Rules of Order, Newly Revised, shall govern the Society in all cases where they are applicable and where they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws.

ARTICLE XIV

AMENDMENTS

Section A. These Bylaws may be amended at the Annual Meeting by a two-thirds vote of those voting using the following procedures:

1. Proposals may be submitted by any member or by the Board of Directors. Proposals from members shall be submitted in writing to the Board of Directors at least four months before the expected effective date.
2. All proposed amendments, together with the recommendations of the Board of Directors, shall be published in the CGS Newsletter and/or electronic communication at least thirty (30) days before the Annual Meeting and presented at a General Membership Meeting. Amendments shall be consecutively numbered, dated and attached to these Bylaws for permanent record.

ARTICLE XV

DISSOLUTION OF SOCIETY

Section A. In the event of the dissolution of The Colorado Genealogical Society, all salable assets shall be converted to cash. The monies of the Society shall be used to purchase genealogical materials. All genealogical materials possessed by the Society shall then be donated to any library in Colorado which is open to the public. Dissolution shall be in accordance with The Internal Revenue Code 501(c)(3).

ARTICLE XVI

ENABLING

Section A. These Bylaws were adopted at the General Membership Meeting of The Colorado Genealogical Society, Inc. on 17 April 1992 to be effective 20 June 1992.
